

And The People Stayed Home: A Heartfelt and Hopeful Story for Kids About the Coronavirus Pandemic

About the Book

And The People Stayed Home is a beautifully illustrated children's book that tells the story of how people all over the world came together to fight the coronavirus pandemic. The book follows a group of children as they learn about the virus and how to stay safe. They also learn about the importance of community and helping others.

The book is full of hope and inspiration, and it shows children that even in the darkest of times, there is always light.
