

Corrupted Democracy: Rogue State Russia and the Richest, Most Destructive

In the wake of the 2016 US election and the poisoning of Sergei Skripal, the world has woken up to the threat posed by the Russian regime. Corrupted Democracy is the untold story of the Kremlin's global campaign to undermine democracy and destabilize the West.

Drawing on unprecedented access to sources within the Russian government, intelligence services, and organized crime, Craig Murray reveals the inner workings of the Putin regime and its impact on the world. He exposes the corruption, the brutality, and the propaganda that have made Russia a pariah state.
