At the heart of this sugary tale lies Lena, a young girl who stumbles upon a magical candy store hidden within a whimsical forest. With each delectable treat she savors, Lena discovers a unique ability that empowers her to soar through the skies, communicate with animals, and manipulate time itself. Accompanied by her loyal candy companions—a wise old lollipop, a mischievous gummy bear, and a compassionate chocolate bar—Lena embarks on a quest to overcome adversity and uncover the secrets that lie within the heart of the Magic Candy Kingdom.

As Lena and her companions navigate enchanted forests, encounter talking animals, and confront treacherous villains, their unwavering friendship and determination are tested at every turn. Through their shared adventures, they learn the true meaning of courage, resilience, and the transformative power of love. Baek's exquisite illustrations bring this enchancing world to life, immersing readers in a symphony of vibrant colors, whimsical characters, and breathtaking landscapes.

Beyond the captivating plot and endearing characters, 'Magic Candies' carries a profound message that resonates with both children and adults alike.
