Some of the women featured in this book include:

- Marie Curie, a Polish and naturalized-French physicist and chemist who conducted pioneering research on radioactivity. She was the first woman to win a Nobel Prize, and the only person to win the Nobel Prize in two different scientific fields.

- Rosa Parks, an African-American civil rights activist who became known for her role in the Montgomery bus boycott. Her refusal to give up her seat to a white man sparked the Montgomery Bus Boycott, which led to the desegregation of public transportation in the United States.
- Eleanor Roosevelt, the longest-serving First Lady of the United States. She was a tireless advocate for human rights and social justice, and she served as a delegate to the United Nations for many years.
- Margaret Thatcher, the first female Prime Minister of the United Kingdom. She was a controversial figure, but she was also a strong leader who made significant changes to the British economy and society.
- Malala Yousafzai, a Pakistani activist for female education. She was shot in the head by the Taliban for speaking out about the importance of education for girls. She survived the attack and has continued to speak out for the rights of girls and women around the world.

These are just a few of the many remarkable women whose stories are told in this book. Their stories are inspiring and empowering, and they will leave you feeling motivated and ready to make a difference in your own life.
